GILI GOLENG is a small island on the south-west coast of Lombok. It offers excellent snorkeling with a vibrant, shallow coral garden where you can spot turtles around and sea horses. The sea water is very clear and calm and the sand is very soft. Aside of the beautiful beach, there is a hill with many coconut trees create a perfect escape island.

GILI ASAHAN is one of the “secret Gili islands” near Bali is located off the South West Lombok Coast. It's unspoilt and largely unheard of. Upon your arrival, you will be welcomed by its pristine beauty; powder soft white sand fringed by lush green palm trees, crystal clear turquoise waters. Secret Garden one of the most snorkeling spots in this area, has a visibility of about 25 meters, clear enough to photograph a variety of coral reefs and beautiful fish milling around us.

GILI LAYAR has a very calm clear sea water as surrounded by small islands around. The house reef right in front of the beach offers safe conditions for snorkeling in shallow water. You can see a wide variety of sea creatures such as turtles, pipefish, different sea star species, reef fish, nudibranch and sea slugs.

GILI RENGIT The house reef offers decent snorkeling as the reef is full of life with tons of fish around. Instead of snorkeling, you may do playing volleyball on the beach, walk around the island or just laying down on the beach. The views in this island is mesmerizing with those tail trees, the white sand and the birds singing in the air.

GILI POH is the smallest island among the islands on the south-west coast of Lombok. Bright white sand scratched around the island. We can walk around for only 15 minutes.
