TUKAD CEPUNG is located in a hidden place, in a chamber of cliffs. The circular cliffs give you the feeling of being in a cave, while the open sky right from where the waterfall emerges, and gives you the most enchanting view. The sunlight falls on the glistening waterfall creating a rainbow, which feels as though it is projected right up to you. The waterfall drops into a shallow pond where you can play water or swim in the pool. PLEASE BRING CHANGING CLOTHS N GOOD FLIPPER

KINTAMANI sit on the rim of the huge Batur caldera about 1,500m above sea level, and offer dramatic views of the active volcano Mount Batur and serene Lake Batur.

TIRTA EMPUL means water gushing from the earth, which for this reason Tirta Empul is regarded as a holy spring. The temple compound consists of a petirtaan or bathing structure, famous for its holy spring water, where Balinese Hindus go to for ritual purification. The temple pond has a spring which gives out fresh water regularly, which Balinese Hindus consider to be holy water. It is considered as one of the most holy temples in all of Bali and is considered one of the most holy water source in Bali.

GUNUNG KAWI is one of Bali's oldest, most charming and certainly largest ancient monuments. Gunung Kawi consists of 10 rock-cut candi (shrines),memorials cut out of the rock face in imitation of actual statues. They stand in 7 meters high sheltered niches cut into the sheer cliff face.

GOA GAJAH The cave is carved into a rock face and you enter through the cavernous mouth of a demon. Inside the T-shaped cave you can see fragmentary remains of lingam's, the phallic symbols of the Hindu god Shiva, plus a statue of the elephant-headed god Ganesh.
