VISITED OBJECTS:

NUSA DUA WATERBLOW is the great power of nature as large waves from the Indian Ocean constantly crash against the jagged limestone edges on the peninsula's south-eastern cliff. The water blow is the outcome of the narrowing crag below the cliff face that channels a surge of water up to 30 meters high from its base following strong currents. This phenomenon results in giant, irregular splashes of wave that can reach several meters high.

GARUDA WISNU KENCANA (GWK) is an integrated cultural park as the window of island arts and culture against the backdrop of nature and an amazing panorama. Rising from the rugged hills of Bali's Bukit Peninsula, the magnificent Garuda Wisnu Kencana statue stands watch over the island.

BALANGAN HILL The limestone cliff above Balangan Beach offers a mesmerizing landscape of Southern Peninsula and beautiful palm grove.

DREAM LAND BEACH is offering 100m stretches of white sand secluded by limestone cliffs that line the rugged coastline of the southern Bukit Peninsula. PLEASE BRING CHANGING CLOTHS N GOOD FLIPPER

ULUWATU is an ancient temple perched atop towering seaside cliffs. Uluwatu offers a wonderful vantage point to view a spectacular sunset.
