UBUD MONKEY FOREST is a small rain forest dwelt by some group of monkeys and other tropical animals. It is not just a monkey spotting opportunity, it is a deeply important religious and spiritual complex for the local community. Here you will find Balinese Hindu temples, tranquil rivers, beautiful moss-covered stones and stunning forested areas to explore.

UBUD PALACE is the palace of the Ubud royal family. It serves as a cultural repository of arts, dance and literature. The palace is featuring well-preserved Balinese architecture and a charming garden setting.

UBUD MARKET is a one stop place to shop for souvenirs to take home. The items sold are very unique because they are typically Balinese, and some are unavailable elsewhere.

CAMPUHAN RIDGE WALK is a free and easy nature trek, popular among repeat visitors to the central highland town of Ubud. The area provides a great retreat from the more hectic southern parts of the island
